– About Me

I'm looking for better opportunities in online work through Upwork, aiming to add experience and grow professionally.

I have the necessary availability to focus fully on the first job, and good organization to face future projects with the same energy and commitment.

I have experience teaching and using Microsoft Office tools (Word, Excel, Publisher, etc.) as well as knowledge of digital organization and file management.

If you are interested in what you see here, let's talk and see if we can achieve something together.
